Sights and Sounds of Sheridan High

. . . the announcements over the intercom

. . . the roar of the crowd at football games

. . . bells signifying the end of classes

. . . children romping on the playground

. . . classes in session

. . . the flag waving above the building

. . . boys walking with a special girl

These varied sights and sounds affect the students of Sheridan High School every day. They signify the Sheridan way of life, because each sight or sound represents a certain activity or class in progress. You are about to share the experiences of the 1966 Sheridan High School year.

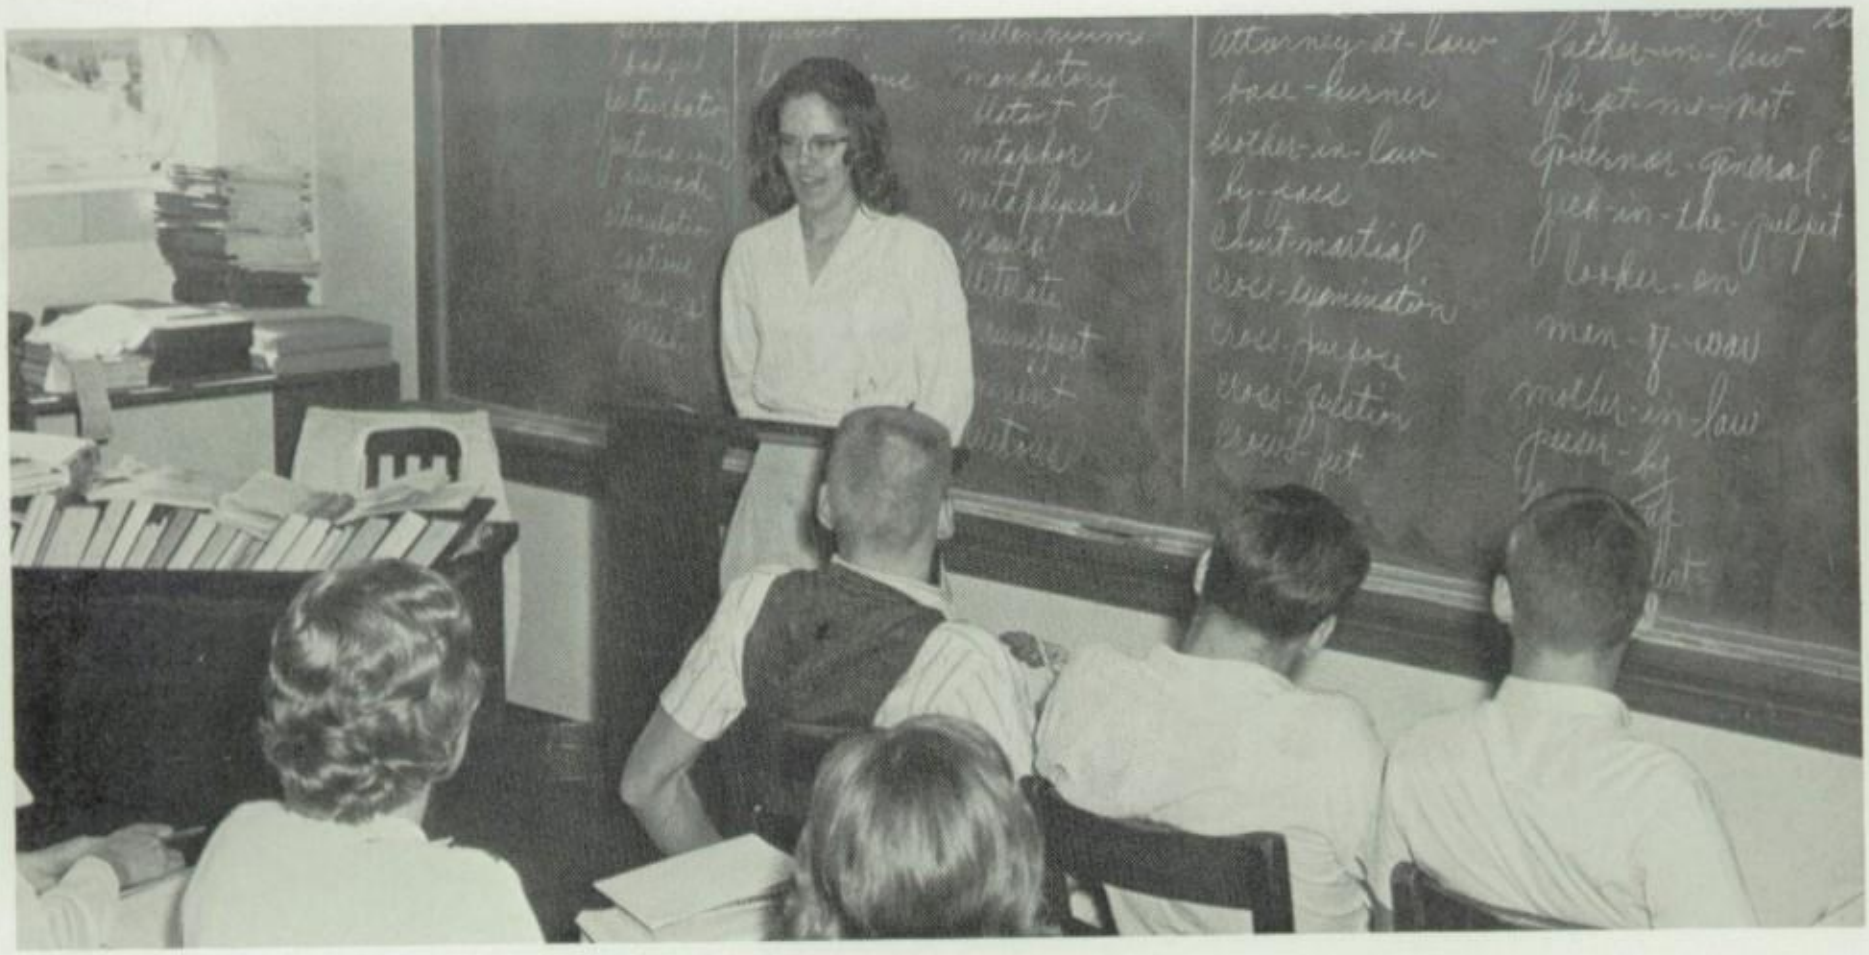
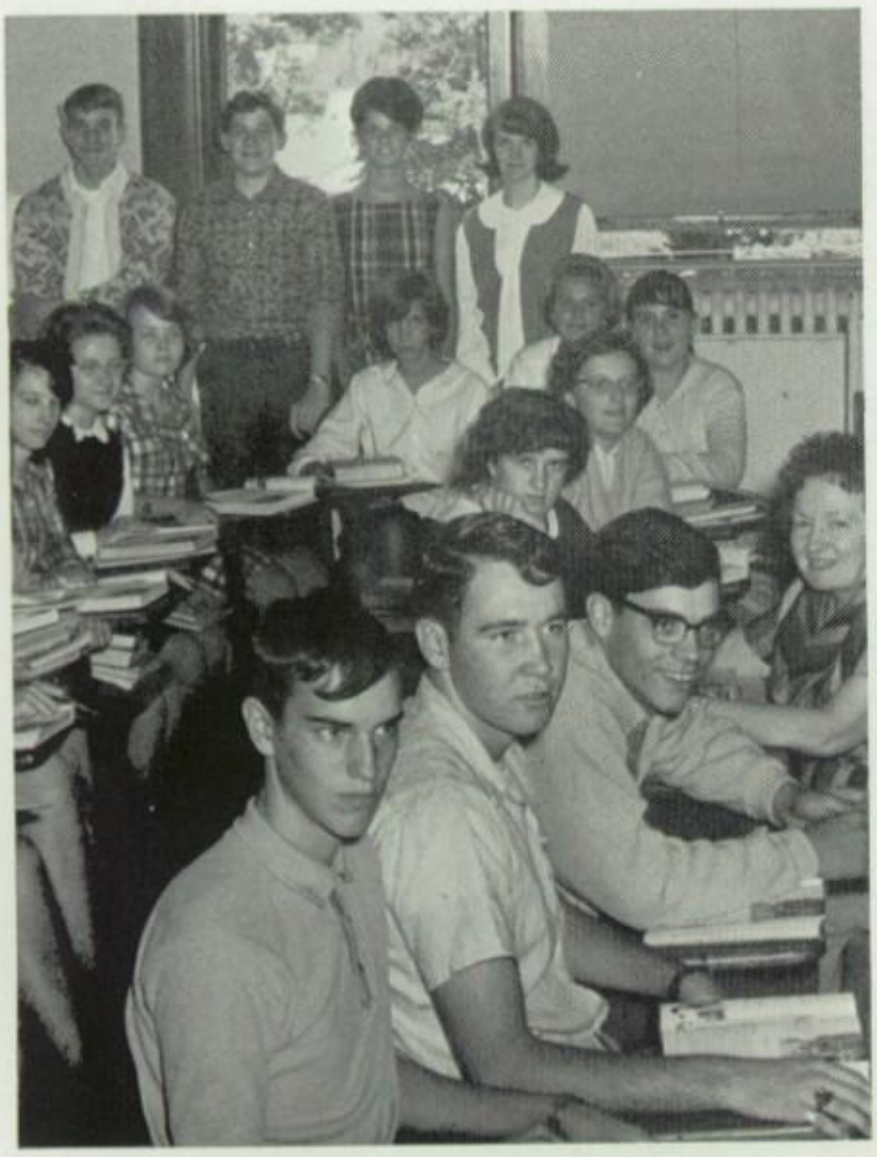
Linguistics Are Our Stepping Stones



Barbara Dell is giving an oral composition in English grammar and composition class. The composition was based on "Low aim, not failure, is crime."



Spanish students learn about the language of Spanish countries.

Second year Latin students learn about the civilization of Rome.

Penny's in Noblesville

to a World of Communication

Charles V used to say that "the more languages a man knew, he was so many more times a man". Each new form of human speech introduces one into a new world of thought and life.

During the school year, Sheridan students gain insight into other worlds through the study of foreign languages. Mrs. Hershman and Miss Perez' help their students in their study of Latin and Spanish.

As instructor of the speech classes, Mrs. Puzey helps prepare students for public speaking and everyday conversation.

English grammar and composition class, taught by Mrs. Cline, is a college preparatory subject.

Chuck Barnes is learning to use gestures to add interest to his speech.

English Literature class awaits the study of MACBETH.

THE SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. If a clod be washed away by the sea, Europe is the less, as well as if a promontory were . . . Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in all mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.

With little practical knowledge behind them, the Annual Staff found the editing of this year's Syllabus rather perplexing at times. But, they made up for their lack of experience with time and hard work. The annual, although a little late, finally came out.

The office practice class devoted a good deal of its time to the composition of the Blackhawk Broadcast. Through cooperation between the staff and Mrs. Spear, the advisor, the monthly issues were published to entertain and inform the students and faculty.

OF . . . ATHLETICS

The Youthful Black Hawks Scorched

Steve Butcher was the standout quarter-miler during the 1965 track season.

The 1965 track season was a complete success as the Blackhawks posted a fine 5-2 record. Coached by Ken Keltner and led by Seniors.

Pat Pickett, Bob Palmer and Warren Weaver, the young Hawks defeated Thorntown, Sharpsville, Westfield, and Western. Also included was the winning of the Westfield Relays.

Three new school records were set as follows: Palmer in the high hurdles--16.0, Weaver in the mile run--4:42.1, and Denny Williams in the pole vault--11'6".

Another bright spot on the team was Pat Pickett who went to the State in the broad jump. Pat's best jump of the year was 20'5". Pat also scored more points, 105 1/2, than anyone else in SHS history.

Denny Williams clears the bar and sets a new school record at 11'6".

John Law grinds out yardage against the Shamrocks.

The Blackhawks completed their 1965 football season with a 3-6 record. Although not impressive, it doesn't tell the whole story. First of all, the Hawks were confronted with one of the tougher schedules in the county. The Hawks opened their season with victories over Thorntown and Clinton Prairie. But they hit a losing streak that was finally ended with a hardfought Homecoming victory over Westfield.

The coaches were Ken Freeman, Ken Keltner, and Hartzell Newell. We hope these three men can keep Sheridan's football record rising steadily.

These husky-looking junior high football boys worked diligently all season to make a good team. They learned not only how to play football but also good sportsmanship.

Coached by Larry Glaze and Phil Shirk, they won 3 games out of 7.

ROW 1: J. Bailey, M. Costlow, E. Noe, P. Hoffman, L. Walden. ROW 2: T. Wright, J. Staley, A. Lyons, J. Mitchell, B. Heffelmire, Mr. Keltner.

Although the Blackhawks had their ups and downs this year, they were able to maintain a spirit of enthusiasm and determination. The season started slow, but this slump was broken by an upset over Carmel.

In the Hamilton Heights Invitational Tourney, the Hawks advanced to the finals by overpowering Fishers. The Huskies won the championship by defeating the Hawks in a two point thriller.

During the remainder of the season, the team and coaches worked diligently to prepare for that long awaited sectional.

The Junior Varsity squad displayed teamwork and spirit throughout the season. Although this year was not as successful as they had hoped, these boys are hoping for a better record on the varsity next season.

The B-Team won the Sheridan B-Team Invitational Tourney by defeating Fishers and Ritter.

Cheerleaders Promote Spirit

VARSITY: Julie Dunlavey, Barbara Martin, Nancy Ringer, Vicki Noe.

Being a cheerleader is a great responsibility and takes a lot more work than most people realize. Their duties, besides practicing, are promoting school spirit, conducting pep sessions, and organizing the booster club.

In order to buy their outfits, the cheerleaders sponsored the Mr. Football and Mr. Basketball dances.

We think the cheerleaders and their sponsor, Mrs. Ken Keltner, deserve congratulations for a good job in backing our team.

The Senior cords--our mark of "SENIORITY."

This Is Where

Every candy bar these Senior boys sold brought us a little closer to the Senior trip.

Mr. Stout crowns our Homecoming Queen, Mary Jane Pickett.

A big event for all Seniors was the ordering of the Senior pictures.

The Action Is

The Sunshine Christmas tree adds to the spirit of Christmas in the school.

These underclassmen are learning to put the school library to good use.

Our boys look rough and ready to go before the Homecoming game against Westfield.
